

2nd, Africa Energy, Mining and Investments Conference, 20-21st, April, 2015 UAE

Africa is considered to be next frontier for Oil and Gas Exploration. It is estimated that the Continent's resources have not been fully explored neither has it received the required investments it deserves in Mining, Infrastructure, Energy sectors. Eastern Africa has seen close to 150TCF of gas discoveries in the last ten years. While more than 4 Billion Barrels were discovered in Sudan, South Sudan, Uganda and Kenya. Angola and Equatorial Guinea have been the best performers on oil and gas discoveries globally recently. Eritrea and Somalia will also showcase their natural resources potential.

Dubai is the Financial Capital of Middle East and many investors would like to know more about investing in Africa's Resources and Energy sectors.

In Kenya the Ministry of energy is looking at generating 5000MW of power within 40 months in a new strategy at industrialization. In Somalia Amsas-Corirole-Afgoye(ACA) Block was recently valued at more than $3.75 Billion by Chapman Petroleum Engineers. Amsas Energy will also present new findings and data on the ACA block and the Coriole Basin.

The Conference will bring together key Private sectors players, in Africa, Middle East, Regional and multilateral Development Agencies. Key themes include:
